MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support
SUBJECT : Weekly Report of the Office of Training

1. Intelligence Review Course Comments

Since you were one of the speakers at the recently completed semi-annual Intelligence Review Course, we are quoting a few student comments which you might find interesting:

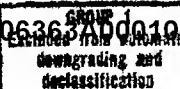

- a. "It renewed my feeling of being a CIA employee--a feeling which gradually erodes in the peculiar atmosphere of HPIC."
- b. "This will be especially helpful to me as a recruiter. What a privilege it was to sit in on such high level, top caliber presentations. I am most grateful for the experience."
- c. "The quality, integrity, dedication and professionalism of the speakers--who are our supervisors--accentuate my faith in this Agency."
- d. "Knowledge gained far exceeds expectations . . . never have I had functions, methods and results so objectively summarized."

2. No Agency Spaces at Defense Systems Management Course, Monterey

OTR has been informed that the Agency cannot expect any spaces in DOD's Defense Systems Management Course for at least a year. This course is given at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California.

This DOD course was first offered in 1965 and a number of PPE and Support Directorate personnel have taken it including the DDCR.

5. Army Installation Management Course, Ft. Belvoir

The Agency was invited to fill one space in Ft. Belvoir's management course which began 6 May; unfortunately the invitation came too late to allow components to make a planned response. We had to turn back the space this time but hope to get adequate lead time when this excellent, no-cost program is offered again.

6. Non-Agency Briefings

During this reporting period, the following non-Agency briefings were given:

At the Defense Intelligence School, 30 members of the Defense Attaché Course and 15 of their wives on the "Nature and Significance of Strategic Intelligence" and the same group, without wives, "National
